

Dyslexia

Support offered by schools and how you can help

Do you want to know:

- what Dyslexia is?
- what schools should do to help?
- what you can do to help?
- the latest advice provided to schools and practitioners?

Ideas about Dyslexia and the guidance given to schools have changed a lot in the past few years. These sessions will help you understand what Dyslexia is, what schools can do, what has been proved to work, how you can help at home and explain the guidance produced by the local authority to ensure children and young people with Dyslexia get the best support possible.
